

MIDLINE REFLECTION

Student Name: Denise

Date: January 9, 2006

Teacher/Class: Ms. Robinson/ 2-Purple

Description of Midline Piece:

Denise wrote about a group of girls who are best friends but one of the friends gets kicked out of the group and they have a fight.

Progress Since Baseline Piece:

Denise adds more details to her work, and more fully develops her ideas. She re-reads and edits more thoroughly, and demonstrates a greater mastery of different writing structures. She uses more descriptive language.

Strengths:

Denise is able to add much description and detail to her writing.
Denise spells almost all words correctly.
Denise uses capital letters and punctuation correctly.
Denise incorporates characters, settings, details.
Denise uses dialogue effectively.
Denise writes in first or third person.
Denise chooses words that convey her intended meaning.

Goals:

Denise will always re-read and edit independently.
Denise will always incorporate literary language.
Denise will develop internal events as well as external.
Denise will develop plot, characters, and details more fully.

Student's Name Denise
 Unit: Realistic Fiction (Second Grade)
 Goals B D S

Date: 2 Purple

Comments

Writer uses the story element of setting in his/her story.			✓
Writer uses the story element of character in his/her story.			✓
Writer uses the story element of plot in his/her story.			✓
Writer uses punctuation that matches the meaning of his/her story.			✓
Writer develops the characters' internal and external traits.			✓
Writer uses the strategies he/she has developed in narrative writing to create fiction.			✓
Writer creates problems in his/her story and plans for resolutions.			✓
Writer is developing of story language.			✓
Writer uses dialogue and feelings in an effort to "show not tell."			✓
Writer has increased his/her sight word vocabulary.			✓
Writer is a resourceful speller, using strategies to tackle difficult words.			✓
Writer writes in such a way that both teacher and child can reread his/her writing.			✓
Writer independently begins and revises new pieces.			✓

B=Beginning
D=Developing
S=Secure

Denise is well above benchmark expectations in all areas!