

Rubric: Researched "All About" Books

	4	3	2	1
Content	The book is very accurately and thoroughly researched. The book contains lots of information about the topic. All information on web is included. There are tons of details, diagrams, and a detailed glossary.	The book is accurately and thoroughly researched. The book contains lots of information about the topic. Almost all information on the web is included. There are many details, at least one diagram and a glossary.	The book is mostly accurately researched. The book contains some information about the topic/ Some information on the web is included. There are some details.	The book is not accurately researched. There is very little information, few or no details or the book may not be about the topic.
Organization	The book is very clearly organized using the web. All types of paper are included and are logically used.	The book is clearly organized. Almost all paper types are included and are used logically.	The book is organized with some confusing parts. Several paper choices are not used at all.	The book is not organized at all. The pages are together in ways that make no sense.
Form	The book has no mistakes. It is clean and neat. It uses correct capital and lower case letters. It has perfect punctuation and perfect spelling. It has been checked lots of times.	The book has few mistakes. It is mostly clean and neat. It uses correct capital and lower case letters almost every place. It has mostly correct punctuation. It has all sight words spelled correctly. It has been checked several times.	The book has several mistakes. It is somewhat messy. There are some correct capital and lower case letters but some mistakes, too. There is some correct punctuation. It has some sight words spelled incorrectly. It has not been checked well.	The book has many mistakes. It is very messy. It has many mistakes with capital letters, lower case letters, punctuation. Many sight words are spelled incorrectly. It has not been checked.