

Student's Name: Penelope
Person being interviewed (relationship): Dad

Interview Questions

A family member interview from our 2nd grade family history study

1. What is your full name? Why were you named that?

Gilberto A. Campos,
Because they named him
after his dad,

2. Where were you born? Do you know any stories about when you were born?

Dominican Republic. He was the second child,

3. What was your childhood like? What kinds of things did you like to do?

It was very happy with his family. He liked baseball. He went to the rivers and mountains and beaches with his friends. He went to work with his dad in the farm. He played with his brothers and sisters. They played
They played basketball and valley ball

4. Where did you go to school? What was your school like?

His school was in a small town and it's a very nice school and he learned a lot. He liked the people.
His favorite subject was History. His school was named Fernando Valerio public school in Santiago Dr.
For lunch they ate oatmeal, fruit and sweets.

for recess.

5. Did you have brothers and sisters? What were they like? Do you have any stories about growing up with them?

He had three sisters and 1 brother. His family shared everything. He and his brother, sisters had fun together. He played with his sisters and brothers with their toys all together sharing and playing. They had trips to relatives home towns.

6. Where were your parents born? What did they do as jobs?

Diminison Republic. His father was a fence maker and his mother was a house wife. His parents earn enough money to eat and live. They did a good job.

7. Did you know your grandparents? What were they like? What things do you know or remember about them?

He met his three grandparents. There were very nice. They were very straight people. They took him to the parks and church. They went to the movies with him and watched cowboy and karate shows. They taught him to be respectful and considerate, honest.

8. Did you know your great-grandparents? Do you know where they were born? What things do you know about them?

He met his great-grand^{mother} Diminon Republic. They were carpenters. They were known by communities. They were known by politics. One of his mother's uncles was the mayor of his city. They were also owners of factories.

9. When you were a child, who lived with you?

His brothers, sisters, and parents. They were nice to him. They took care of him. They give him toys and he share them with his family.

10. Did your family have any traditions and celebrations that were important to you? Do you still following those traditions, or have those celebrations today?

Every family in his family came on Christmas. They still do. His family always on holidays came over to his house and brought food and drinks and gifts. They share these gifts with each other as they do now still.

11. Do you have any items or stories that have been handed down through the generations in your family? What are they?

He does. They have photo albums that have been pasted on. They also were kept and passed on from family from family like Diplomas, clothes from his ancestors and special stuff.

12. When did you leave home? Where did you live when you left your parents' home?

He left in 1970 when he was 15. He went to the Capital. His life in the Capital and the United States were the clothes, food, things, and money.

13. Have you lived in different places? What were they like? What kinds of different jobs have you had?

He lived in different cities. They were nice cities. Hotels, electronics stores, and a taxi driver. It was interesting working in a hotel because he learned and met a lot of people. It was an interesting job to do as selling electronics because of helping people.

14. Do you know who in your family has immigrated? What country is your family originally from? Have different members of your family moved to different countries? What do you know about the people in your family who have done this?

His sister Yoani, United States, Puerto Rico, and Spain. Some of them were professionals. They also have been to Italy and Europe.

He got to different people and take them to different places and learn to get around.

15. If you have moved from one country to another, please tell about what it was like.

He moved from the Dominican Republic to the United States.

It was a good experience he learned because it's the biggest country in the world.

He lived in a apartment when he came. There was a lot more people than D.R. It was different here for him because there was four seasons than one. It's so different because there was different people there and some speak different languages.